CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Koeck drove to New Hamburg yesterday, where they will remain today. Mr. Koeck will inspect the big herd of Guernseys recently bought by farmers in that section of Scott County.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Zolesmann departed for St. Louis yesterday, where they will spend Thanksgiving with friends. They made the trip by automobile.

Mr. Louis Houck, who has been ill with influenza, has recovered and expects to go to San Antonio, Tex., with Mrs. Houck for the winter months. They will depart within the next few days.

Mrs. Charles H. Overstolz is spending this week in St. Louis with relatives.

Bern Criddle, the colored janitor at the Houck building, Spanish and Independence streets, received notice Monday that his daughter, Loretta Criddle, had died in St. Louis of influenza. She was buried yesterday in that city.

Mrs. R. K. Jackson, wife of the popular Jackson postmaster, and children have returned from St. Louis, where they spent several days with relatives.

David E. Hoch, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hoch, arrived in the Cape Tuesday to spend a ten day furlough with his family. He has been at the Great Lakes training station since last May, preparing himself for duty on one of Uncle Sam's warships. Now that the war is over he is anxious to obtain his release. A large concern in Chicago, where he was employed before entering the service, has made application for his release. He enjoyed his stay at the Great Lakes station and gained weight while training.

A Victory euchre will be given by the ladies of St. Mary's parish at the hall just south of the church. The ladies of the parish have contributed pies, cakes, sandwiches and other edibles which will be served as a part of the entertainment.

Herman Simers, the well-known farmer living on the old Gordonville road, is at St. Francois hospital suffering from throat trouble. While his condition is not serious, it is likely that he will undergo an operation before leaving the hospital.

Arthur (Buddie) Cairns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cairns, left several days ago for Rolla, Mo., where he will enter the School of Mines, a part of the state university. When he decided that his services were needed by the government a few weeks ago he left school and took examination for the aviator corps. He passed with a high score and was awaiting to be called when the armistice was signed.

Casper Zander, manager of the St. Charles bar, has been elected manager of the Elks' club in Cairo and expects to move to that city within a short time. He is a brother-in-law of Clay Lutz and has been in business with Mr. Lutz in this city for a number of years. He has many friends in this city.

Harry Kage is serving as a special policeman during the absence of Patrolman Hutson, who was called to St. Louis by the illness of a relative.

Clarence Drum, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Drum of 1215 Broadway, returned home this morning from the officers' training school at Camp Lee, Va. He entered the army about a year ago, going first to Camp Oglethorpe, Ga., where he remained only a short time. He was then transferred to General Hospital No. 1, in the York City, where he remained until a few days ago, when having been promoted to sergeant, he was transferred to Camp Lee, Va., reaching there on the day that peace was declared. He reports that of his company numbering 236 only 18 were retained in the service and that on last Saturday 3000 candidates for the officers training were discharged.

Mr. Drum has spent his entire life in this city. He graduated with honors in the Central High School class of '17, leaving for the army camp a short time afterward. He made a fine record in the army, having received several promotions while in the service. His many friends are now congratulating him over his fine record and safe return.

Mr. A. L. Farrar of 141 North Henderson avenue, who has been for some months in the government service at Jacksonville, Tenn., returned home yesterday.

ST. LOUIS MARKETS

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 27.—Receipts—Cattle, 14,000; head of hogs, 17,000; sheep, 4,000; horses and mules, 2000.

Cattle—Receipts exceeded expectations and were large enough to enable buyers to slice prices. Quality of the steer supply was mainly plain to common with prime kinds missing. Market slow opening and movement sluggish all day long; prices averaged fully 25c lower and uneven at the decline, extremes showing more loss than this. A portion of the offering was carried over. Native steers sold up to $15.85 and westerns to $13.10.

Hogs—All good quality hogs found ready sales at prices that were around a dime higher than the close of last week, and most of the pigs and lights also were in the neighborhood of a dime higher and like the heavier hogs found ready sale. Pigs and lights and all unfinished hogs were dull sale and no higher. Throw-out packers were extremely dull sale.

Buyers sorted the packers off in most cases and then no one wanted them. The top of the market was $17.85, paid for butcher hogs, while the bulk of the good offerings sold at $17.40@17.75.

Cash Wheat—Received 144,000 bu., including 65 cars local and 32 through. Premiums 1/2c to 1c higher, with a strong demand for red wheat, and milling requirements not satisfied, but hard wheat (only couple of cars ordered) not wanted at over $2.25 for No. 1, although $2.27 was asked. Offerings were 38 cars, of which 18 cars sold to elevators, 13 cars to go out, and 7 cars to local mills.

Corn—in the earlier period there was a pretty strong, healthy demand for the active deliveries, during which time net upturns of 1 1/2c to 2c per bushel, a fairly good sized business going forward meanwhile. Sellers became plentiful outside markets slipped down sharply. St. Louis investors reduced their buying limits to a great extent. The later market experienced a very great change; selling of a strong character served to encourage the short interest and prices finally sought a cheaper level, dropping heavily from the recent best quotations; down still lower towards 1.15, closing unsettled and weak at 2 1/2c under that last week.

Oats—Actual transactions again showed upon an exceeding thin scale; scarcely anything said about oats for a considerable length of time following 9:30; hence arriving at reliable quotations was a difficult matter—no essential change in price meanwhile. Market finished very nervous and 1 1/2c to 2 1/2c cheaper than Saturday last November was offered at 72 to 71 cents. December had 71 1/2c, and later ranged to 70 1/2 to 70 3/4 at the end.

CUBANS WANT ROWING RACES
Anxious to Compete in America and Canada When Sport Is Resumed After End of War.

Joe Wright of Toronto, the famous stroke oar and former captain of the Argonaut R. C., has returned to the Canadian city after coaching the members of a Havana club for the races for the championship of Cuba. The crews instructed by Wright won the four-oared race, and a single sculler also won, while his eight-oared crew finished second. The Cubans are anxious to compete in America and Canada when rowing is resumed after the Huns are beaten.

LIEUT. FRISSELL WELL, HE CABLES

Popular Cape Aviator Went Through Final Campaign In France Untouched

The first and only Cape Girardeau soldier in France who has been heard from since the signing of the armistice was Lieut. Howard N. Frissell, who cabled his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Frissell, that he was well.

The death of Lieut. Juden over a month ago and the delay in reporting it, has caused many parents to feel apprehensive for the welfare of their sons. In as much as it requires a mother even longer to get a letter from France, it will be two weeks before parents and relatives hear from soldiers through the regular channels.

Mrs. Frissell was almost prostrated when she learned that Lieut. Juden had been dead a month when his grandmother was notified. The following morning, however, she received a cablegram from Lieut. Frissell, stating that he was in good health. Lieut. Frissell recently requested his father to get a complete file of the St. Louis newspapers from Sept. 20 to the end of hostilities. This is taken to indicate that Lieut. Frissell was in the fighting continuously from September 20.

Lieut. Frissell entered the aviation corps shortly after his arrival in France. He entered the aviation school, finished his course, and was actively engaged in air fighting before he notified his relatives that he was an aviator.

His brother, Major Patrick Frissell, is in charge of the government aviation field at Erbfield, Ark., and from the time he entered the army as a volunteer, Lieut. Howard Frissell had an ambition to be a flyer. He made application for the transfer while he was in the training camp, but his request was refused.

CZCHO-SLOVAKS IN AUSTRIA DEMOCRATS

Formation Of The New Republic Forms One Of The Striking Romances Of War

New York, Nov. 27.—Sliced out of Hungary by the sword of war, the Czech-Slovak republic, youngest recognized member of the allied family of nations, is in reality a merger under democratic government of the ancient Bohemian, Moravian, Silesian and Slavic years to Teuton and Magyar domination.

The rebirth of Czech and Slav independence forms one of the most striking romances of the war. For centuries Bohemia stood in the forefront of European culture, giving and educating. Hus and Jerome of Prague, the poet, Kollar, the linguist of art, Brozik, the painter, and the musician Dvorak, with many

WILSON SIGNS THE PROHIBITION BILL

Manufacture Of All Intoxicating Drinks Will Stop On May 1, 1919.

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Wilson signed this emergency agricultural appropriation bill without legislative rider providing for national prohibition from next July 1 until the American army is demobilized.

The prohibition amendment of the agricultural measure caused a long fight in the senate. Officials of the Shipping Board opposed its adoption on the ground that taking beer from ship builders would cause discontent, which would be reflected in their work.

Secretary Daniels, who was called before the Senate committee holding the hearing, combatted this theory, saying that after sale of intoxicants around naval establishments has been stopped the output of the workmen increased. He referred especially to the Mars Island (Cal.) Navy Yard.

Unless the presidential proclamation under the food control act is rescinded the prohibition bill will affect only the manufacturers of wine, for the brewing of all beer must cease December 1 under the president's proclamation.

The manufacture of whisky was stopped soon after the ration entered war. Under the amendment the manufacture of wine will cease next May 1, and should brewing of beer be allowed to continue after December 1, it also would stop May 1 under the new law.

After next June 30 no intoxicating liquors of any kind may be sold in this country for beverage purposes except for export until such time as the president's proclamation declares demobilization completed. The amendment also prohibits the importation of any intoxicating beverages into this country from the time the bill is approved by the president until the demobilization of the army is completed.

Others whose deeds have found places in history. Hardly less advanced was the civilization of her sister states. With such inspiration the Czech-Slovakians retained, despite Austrian oppression, a national organization and were prepared even before the start of the conflict now terminated by armistice, to strike the blows that have given them freedom.

They opposed the mobilization of the Austrian army, resisted induction of their manhood, despite court-martial and wholesale persecution and throughout the war obstructed and undermined the Austrian administration. From their ranks, through desertion or capture, thousands of fighting men found their way into the Russian and Italian armies, where they turned and fought the power that had conscripted them. By their spirit and efficiency as soldiers they gained recognition by the allies of the Czech-Slovak units, and before the war ended more than 100,000 troops under their own commanders, were enlisted for the allied cause in France, Italy, European Russia and Siberia.
